2. The Robe(s)
3. The Meal(s)

Discussion Questions:

- One extreme with a passage like this is to try to get all caught up in the details of how a medium worked. The other extreme is to think we live a fully mechanical, non-supernatural world, where such things can't happen at all. What are some dangers of each of those extremes? To which one are you more susceptible?
- In what ways are you tempted to seek an additional word from the LORD when your main problem is simply that you haven't obeyed what He's already given you? Is there an area of ongoing disobedience for you right now?
- How can this passage help us appreciate the significance of communion? What are some of the things the communion meal conveys about being in a covenant with God?
