Sermon: The Triumph of Christ

Passage: Col 2:11-15

Date: 10-11-20

- 1. It's claimed that the best defense against harmful ideologies and philosophies is to be grounded in the work of Christ. Does this give you confidence? Why or why not?
- 2. It's essential to remember that Christ completely died and then literally rose again. Do you ever focus more on one at the expense of the other? Why is this dual reality important?
