- 2. Setting.

- 3. Structure.

- 4. Savior

Discussion Questions:

- If you were to really (or more fully) “taste and see” God’s goodness, how do you think you might approach life differently? Is there anything you can do to know God experientially more than you currently do? Are there any hindrances currently in the way?

- Talk through how hearing the promise “blessed is the man who takes refuge in God” with faith would help you conquer at least one particular sin. Be as specific as you can.

- In what ways are you tempted to think of God answering your prayers for help primarily in terms of life in this world? How might this psalm at first seem to support such a mindset? How does a fuller understanding remind us to look to eternity?
