- In what ways are you tempted to evaluate others according to the expectations of the world? In what ways are you tempted to evaluate yourself by the world's standards? How does this passage free you from both of those things?
- What is needed in order for you to start looking at the world around you in line with the way God sees it? What are some practical things you can do or changes you can make?
- What's at least 1 implication of resting in the care of your Shepherd-King for you personally?
