Discussion Questions:

- If sin blinds someone to its presence, what are some things that will help you become conscious of its impact in your life? Consider where you personally are most likely to be blinded by your own sin.
- How do we hold “God repenting” and “God not repenting” together? How do we see these together at the Cross? What’s a practical implication for you of each?
- Where have you been tempted to respond to God with partial repentance? What would a total turning from sin and toward God look like in that area?
