Discussion Questions:

- When you think about knowing God, what “means” come to mind? In what ways would David’s given method of discerning God’s will have been simpler or easier than what has been given to us? What disadvantages would it have had?
- What are modern, contemporary incentives for rejecting the Savior?
- What does following Jesus on the path of narrow escape and stark division look like for you practically? How have you experienced Him providing for you in the wilderness? (Or, how can you experience His provision moving forward?)
