- In what ways are you tempted to grab for things yourself, rather than waiting on God to give?

- When have you experienced God holding you (or others) back from committing evil? How might this give you hope for circumstances where you can't necessarily perceive His restraining hand?

- What character lessons can you apply from a story like this? How can you make sure to run them through Christ first, rather than jumping to yourself?
