- Put yourself in Zechariah's position. How do you think he felt going into the temple that day? How do you think he felt regarding his situation in life in general?
- When have you been tempted to feel like God was being "silent"? How have you tended to react in moments like that?
- How can the work of Christ assure you of God's communication to you? Practically speaking, how can this divine revelation fill you with hope no matter what you're facing – and particularly at this Christmas season?
