Sermon Notes:

1. What was God doing "one minute" before creation?
2. What difference does that make in our worship?
3. What opposition can we expect to this doctrine?

Discussion Questions:

- "What's at least one misperception you've held of the Trinity in the past? Put differently, what's an analogy of the Trinity you've used before, and how does it fall short? What are the ramifications of approaching God with this kind of inadequate view?
- Based on today's message, how would you describe what God was doing prior to creation? What difference can this really make in your life?
- Pick at least one mundane, ordinary aspect of your life. Try to connect that activity or facet of life as directly to the Trinity as you can. How can you engage in it with joy because God is Trinity?
