- What inadequate/inaccurate views of holiness have you entertained or been dominated by in the past?
- Try to talk out the central point of today's message in your own words (whether with your Life Group, family, a friend, or in journaling): what is the connection between God's holiness and His love? How close is this connection?
- What's at least one practical application you can make in relation to loving God or loving others in light of today's message?
