Antrim Ministry Volunteers Code of Conduct

1. I agree to submit to and support the biblical teaching and direction of Antrim's leadership as they follow God in His Word, the Bible.
2. I commit to preparing ahead of time as needed and being ready to go at the start of events whenever I volunteer.
3. I commit to interacting with students, fellow volunteers, and Children's Ministry leadership with grace, truth, gentleness, and respect.
4. I commit to praying for the children I teach and serve.
5. I will seek to encourage and equip parents and families as I am able, understanding the home to be the primary source of spiritual instruction for children.
6. I agree to have a spirit of humility and unity with the Antrim congregation as a whole.
7. I affirm that I will honor God and model Christian living in my personal conduct when I am serving in Children's Ministry and when I'm not, including in the areas of sexuality, finances, speech, conflict resolution, personal prayer and Bible-reading, church service attendance, and more.
